Showcasing

There will be a very limited number of showcase spots available during the Gander Musical Theatre Symposium (20-30 minutes in length).

Would you like to submit a piece for consideration for showcasing? Please note that only original work is eligible. If so, please send the title, short description and a link to video for consideration.

Fees and Subsidy

For the inaugural year of the Gander Musical Theatre Symposium, admission to the event is free of charge. We will also be offering a travel subsidy for those attending from across and outside the province. More information will be available about this, once we have your expression of interest. Please contact the Symposium staff to discuss group attendance.

In order to be considered for the subsidy, applicants will need to attend the symposium in full, including the plenary session on Sunday.
